DR. SPINNEY

NO. 11 KEARNEY ST.,

Treats All Chronic and Special Diseases.

YOUNG MEN

WHO may be suffering from the effect of youthful follies or indiscretions, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. Dr. Spinney will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty, who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits aropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, the color will be a thin milky hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of Seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration to the genito-urinary organs.

Office hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice, $5.
Call or address,
DR. SPINNEY & CO.,

Virginia Street, Reno. oc21

We call the special attention of all our Nevada contemporaries to the editorial in this number of the JOURNAL. It treats of matters in which we are all deeply interested and which we should not cease to agitate until the evils are corrected. If Director Burchard cannot explain these matters, he should be promptly removed.

The Jury meets on the 20th
Quite a number of young men left for Pyramid yesterday morning.

The case of McFurnham vs. McFarland will be appealed to the District Court.

Manning & Berry have just finished twenty by tubs for the Asylum. They were taken down yesterday.

Don't forget the meeting at the theater this morning at 9 A. M. Every citizen should be interested in having proper exits to the building.

H. M. Yerington, C. P. Mison, Harry Hunter and J. H. Cowan comprise the new Chilled Car Wheel Company which is to be established at Chicago.

Mr. Plumley's little daughter had her feet and legs frozen up to her knees while riding on horseback to school at Bishop Creek, the other morning.

Virginia papers state that Reno is about to lose Mr. W. H. Dickson. He talks of going to San Francisco to remain. We hope this is a mistake.

Governor Adams Monday issued a commission to Dr. F. M. Coun as surgeon on the staff of Brigadier General Mathewson, vice Dr. Webber resigned.

Mono lake is situated at the base of the main range of the Sierra where the water is very low and the water never freezes.

A. J. Taylor, foreman of the Volta rail, down near Carson had his arm mangled in the machinery in such a manner that amputation is rendered necessary.

Officer John Hoy, lost his self-cocking colts, revolver 38 calibre Tuesday. He would like it returned to him, and he will pay a reasonable reward and ask no questions.

In the matter of the Norton estate the portion of Jacob Norton to set aside as a personal property of the estate was continued by the Court yesterday until to day.

A man twenty three years of age, by the name of John Goulden was killed Tuesday afternoon in the logging camp of his brothers on Little Truckee river. A log rolled on him crushing him.

Parties owning buildings on the west side of Virginia street, below the Odd Fellows building should repair their sidewalks where it is needed. There are several broken pieces and holes which will cause some one to break a leg yet.

The many friends of Miss Nellie Parkinson of Carson will give her a rousing benefit in that city on the evening of February 17th. The funds raised at the benefit are intended to assist the young lady in perfecting her musical education.

James Gatewood, an old Carsonite, who has been at the point of death several times in the past few years, has recently had a surgical operation performed upon him in one of the San Francisco hospitals with every prospect of his ultimate restoration to health.

W. R. Chabert has just returned from a trip to Los Angeles. He says it is perfectly beautiful there now. The orange trees are heavily laden with ripening fruit, and shrubbery is beginning to take on its Spring dress. It snowed there an inch and a half one day while he was there. This was something unusual and may change the regular order of things.

The Mayflower
The Bristol Times says that Bristol has the biggest bonanza in the State today. The Mayflower of the Bristol S. M. Co., being the greatest mine that has been uncovered for years. The ore body is immense and steadily increasing in quality as well as quantity. The rock that is now being shipped to the mill runs all the way from $300 to $1,000 per ton. The clean up made at the mill a few days ago for the last six days run amounted to $26,000, the silver bars being stacked up like so much cord wood, reminding one of the pulpy days of Pioche, when the bullion could be seen piled up by the ton.

Len. Triplett.
The JOURNAL published yesterday the killing of Triplett, in San Francisco some time since. Herman Thyess seeing the item and being quite well acquainted with the individual gave us his experience with the man Triplett. He and Herman have not been friends for several years as will be seen by reading a clipping we give below taken from the Evening Post in 1875. He came to Reno last Summer a day or two before the Fair, and called on Thyess being very anxious to renew the old acquaintance, but he was not encouraged. Thyess gave him a dollar however to eat on, and ordered him not to annoy him anymore. Soon after this he had a scrimmage with two prominent newspaper men of Virginia and somewhat used them up. He was a bad character and has been in a number of scrapes both in this State and in California, and served one year in the California State Prison. The following articles are from the San Francisco Post in 1875.

AN INCORRIGIBLE THIEF
About 8 o'clock last evening a young man named Herman Thyess, residing at the Folsom Hotel on Folsom street, on entering his room, was astonished to see a pair of masculine boots sticking out from under his bed. His first impulse was to fly, but on more mature consideration he determined to examine the strange apparition more closely and seized the mysterious brogans. A lusty pull developed an athletic individual, who turned on Mr. Thyess and grasped him by the throat. He was overpowered and finally arrested by Officer Bunker, who recognized him a worthy known to the police under the name of Benjamin, alias John Triplett. When arrested he feigned drunkenness, and became so obstreperous that it was necessary to handcuff him and exhibit a clue before he would consent to be taken in. A quantity of jewelry, toilet articles, etc., were found in his possession. Charges of burglary and threats against life were entered against him.

Triplett is the person who was badly burned in a hay fire on Clay street wharf. He was taken to the Hospital, where he remained for some time in a precarious condition, and slight hopes were entertained of his recovery, but the Old Adam was too strong in Triplett, and he snivelled to earn unenviable fame as an incorrigible thief. In December last he was arrested for burglary and held to answer the charge with bail set at $2,000. The Grand Jury ignored his bill, however—probably thinking that the severe injuries he had received in the fire were sufficient guarantee of his innocence of the grave offense with which he was charged. He was brought up for examination in the Police Court this morning, and remanded to give the prosecution an opportunity to gain important evidence.

TRIPLETT AS A THIEF AND "BEAT"
Lew Triplett, alias Ben Triplett alias John Triplett who is now languishing in the City Prison on a charge of attempted burglary in a house on Folsom street a short time since, is known by nearly all hotel keepers in the places where he has visited, particularly in Sacramento, as one of the most polished of the "stuffers." But, to use his own words, the only place he ever detested was the "Water Works" of the latter place—we believe that is the term applied to the County Jail—in which institution he was confined on one or two occasions for playing some of his small tricks, and in one instance while let out in the yard to perform some trivial duty succeeded in escaping by scaling the fence. He then directed his course to the State of Nevada, Virginia City being marked as his chief rendezvous, and, after being repeatedly warned by the "Gals," succeeded, together with his "pal" in spending one year in the Penitentiary for the crime of horse stealing. He is the self-same individual who, six or seven months ago, was engaged in a row on the corner of Folsom and Eleventh streets wherein the front portion of a grocery store was almost entirely demolished, and for which to escape the arm of justice he emigrated to parts unknown, only returning to again resume his old practices, and winding up his watch by being "tuned" in the attempt above alluded to. It is said of him, that wishing to come from Winnemucca to Reno and being short of funds he succeeded in making both ends meet in a somewhat peculiar way. He got aboard the train, stationed himself on the platform of the post-car, and awaited further results. When out a short distance from Winnemucca he was observed by a brakeman, who demanded his fare or be ejected from the cars. Triplett replied that he had not sufficient money to pay his passage, but would give him what he had, to which the brakeman readily consented. Everything was then beautiful and serene for the time being until when the train was nearing the depot at Reno, Triplett approached the "iron mangle," and said, "Are you the conductor?" to which the brakeman, motioning Triplett to keep silent, replied that he was not. "Well, then, what right had you to take my coin? Give it back, or I'll go to Stanford and equal on you." The brakeman, without the least hesitancy, complied with his request and refunded the money. Triplett pocketing it, and chucking at the trick he had played to so great advantage, started off for "fresh fields and pastures new." It is presumed, undoubtedly, that Mr. Triplett will be domiciled, although it is but his first conviction in this city, for a year or more in the "Bastille up the Bay."

Saturday Night Social.
The dances at the Reform Club Hall on Saturday evening's, hereafter will be under the direction of the Reno Orchestra. Dancing will commence promptly at 9, and continue until 12 o'clock. Several new Quadrilles will be introduced, and everything will be done to make these pleasant parties. The orchestra without exception will be charged 50 cents, ladies free.

Hagerman's Shout
We clip the following public gem from last evening's Chronicle:
Up from the East, at close of day,
Bringing the opera goers dismay,
The affrighted air with a shudder bore,
Like a herald in haste, to the Mascot's door,
The terrible grumble and rumble and roar,
Telling a fire had burst out once more—
And Hagerman up in the gallery.

And wider still these billows of fire
Thundered along over Chinese wire,
And louder yet in the theater rolled
The roar of the red sea uncontrolled,
Making the blood of the listener cold
As he viewed the crowd in panic array—
With Hagerman up in the gallery.

Yes! there was a man in that scared crowd—
A good, broad statesman, mild yet proud,
Regardless the mob, breathless and grim,
Regardless the peanuts cracking near him,
He hamper'd his square back, he stood on his feet,
Cool as a cucumber, calm as a beet—
Was Hagerman up in the gallery.

Beneath the top tier's half-price load,
Like the fishy Truckee river flowed,
In surging swirls the affrighted mob,
Stricken with fear, which seemed to rob
Their palsied brains of thought or sense,
Then sounded the voice, in tones intense,
Of Hagerman up in the gallery.

"The fire's in Chinatown!" he said,
In ringing accents, and the dread
Gave way to hope and blessed peace,
Like wheels well doped with axle grease,
Like oil on water, came on votes,
Faded the friction and smiled the Oates
On Hagerman up in the gallery.

Hurrah! Hurrah for Hagerman!
Hurrah! hurrah for that brave man!
And when his statue's placed on high,
Under the dome of Washoe's sky—
The Truckee Tradesmen's Temple of Fame—
There, with the glorious General's name,
Be it said in letters bold and bright
"He was the man who won renown
By shouting 'The fire's in Chinatown!'
But Hagerman's up in the gallery!"

A Swedish Newspaper
The Carson Tribune says N. Soderburg, Esq., long time resident of Carson City, and one of Gen. R. M. Clarke's law pupils, is editing a newspaper in San Francisco in the Swedish language. Mr. S. is also establishing a legal practice among his countrymen and others at the Bay City. He is a fine classical scholar, a printer, a clear headed and well read lawyer, and always a gentleman, and his many friends here will be pleased to know of his success.

Nevada and Oregon
F. Fowler left this morning for New York. D. W. Bales has left for the same place by the southern route. They go on the business of the Nevada and Oregon Railroad, and say they have every assurance of having funds to put the road through to Junction by April 1st.—[Gazette]

Says the Tombstone Epitaph: Hon. W. M. Stewart is home again in Tombstone. He has made this place his headquarters so long and has become so well acquainted with our people that he seems as much at home as any of us.

Is Jim Morgan there too? Shouldn't think W. M. could get along at all without his old Comstock "packer."

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

To its Natural Vitality and color.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has been proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; it often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray. It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus, brassy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a treat for ladies' hair, the Vigor is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume and valued for the soft luster and richness of tone it imparts.

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, in and for the County of Washoe.

The State of Nevada sends W. F. PECK, MINNIE H. PECK and ROSA HUTCHINSON, greeting. You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as Defendants by W. T. Kirkpatrick as Plaintiff in the District Court of the Second Judicial District, in and for the County of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the Complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this Summons, (exclusive of the day of service) if served in said County; or twenty days, if served out of said County, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days—or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to recover judgment against Minnie H. Peck in the sum of four hundred and sixty dollars principal, and seventy dollars interest, on a promissory note which Plaintiff alleges one Minnie H. Hoyer, executed to Plaintiff February 12th, 1881, payable one year after date, with interest at the rate of one and one-half per cent. per month, payable quarterly, and providing that if the interest be not paid when due then the principal and interest should become due, said complaint also alleges that said Minnie H. Hoyer has failed to pay the interest, whereby the Note became due; also alleges that said Minnie H. Hoyer executed a mortgage to secure said Note on the following described land: Beginning at the SW corner of lot one (1) in Block "P," thence the boundary runs northerly forty feet with the east line of Virginia street; thence at right angles east ninety feet; thence at right angles south forty feet to the north line of Second street; thence west along the north line of Second street ninety feet to the place of beginning, all in Block "P," in the town of Reno, Washoe county, Nevada; also alleging that said Minnie H. Hoyer has since the execution of said note and mortgage married defendant F. M. Peck, and they are now husband and wife, and asking to have said mortgage foreclosed; also for an attorney's fee of fifty per cent, and asking that all the right of Defendant Rosa Hutchinson in and to said property be foreclosed and declared junior and subsequent to Plaintiff's mortgage, and asking for a sale of the mortgaged premises and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and equitable, all of which will more fully appear from the Complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said county. And you are further notified, that if you fail to appear and answer said Complaint, the said Plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I, Geo. A. Rankin, have hereunto set my hand this 6th day of January, A. D. 1882.

GEO. A. RANKIN, Atty for Pl'tf.

Reno, Jan. 7, 1882-lm
